CRISIS CENTERS Continued

Santa Fe Rape Crises Center

For the past 31 years, our core emphasis has been the medical, legal, and psychotherapeutic support of sexual assault and abuse survivors. In addition our center offers preventive reenactment therapy for youthful offenders and educational empowerment programs directed toward empowering our community. Our multidisciplinary approach to healing brings therapists, educator, administrative personnel, volunteer, forensic interviewers, SANE Nurses, representatives from the First Judicial District Attorney's Office, the Santa Fe Police Department, and the New Mexico State Police into one facility in order to better support the needs of the community that we serve. We have recently added support for other traumas to our mission and added two new programs that provide support to families at risk for abuse and to families with newborn infants and newly adopted children. This support includes parenting classes.

Mentoring New Mexico

We are a school based mentoring program. We match screened and trained caring adult and responsible high school students with at risk students in elementary, middle and high schools. Mentors spend an hour a week mentoring their students at school during the school day while school is in session, giving their mentees the most valuable things they have: their time, experience and caring.

PARENTAL/FAMILY SERVICES

Youth Shelters and Family Services (YSFS)

Youth and families served are able to move seamlessly from one program or service area to another within the agency. YS is able to offer an integrated continuum of services under one organizational roof, including shelter, counseling, case management, life skills development, and other services—an approach whose effectiveness has been demonstrated by research and evaluation. In addition, all YS programs use a strengths-based, youth development approach, incorporating evidence-based practices that build assets in young people, families, and communities

Su Vida-Multisystemic Therapy (MST)

MST is a family and home, evidenced based treatment that strives to change how youth function in their natural settings-home, school, and neighborhood-in ways that promote positive social behavior while decreasing antisocial behavior. The primary goals of MST are to: (a) reduce youth criminal activity; (b) reduce other types of antisocial behavior such as drug abuse; and (c) achieve these outcomes at a cost savings by decreasing rates of incarceration and out-of-home placement.

Youth Drinking Driver Visitation Program

YDDVP was started in Santa Fe to address the serious issue of underage drinking & driving. Participants attend orientation where we discuss the impact of alcohol related crashes on family, friends and community, as well as the individuals involved. The immediate and long term consequences of alcohol & drug abuse are experienced powerfully during a one-on-one 4-hour tour of the hospital with a trained facilitator. A 4-hour workshop led by a drug & alcohol counselor provides an opportunity to evaluate past behaviors and begin to assimilate program experiences to guide future choices. Serves Santa Fe County and surrounding areas.
